

About the judges

Lew McCreary of Waltham, the author of the novels “The Minus Man” and “Mount’s Mistake,” is the editor in chief of CSO Magazine.

Camille Napier is an English teacher at Natick High School, where she teaches creative writing courses, among others.

Karol Bartlett is Special Projects Librarian at Morse Institute Library in Natick and editor of the Vital Signs Newsletter.

Martha Heller of Natick, a former book editor, is director of the CIO Executive Council, a professional association.

Michael Goldberg of Natick, a member of the TCAN Council of Electors, is a writer and editor. He works as managing editor of CSO Magazine.