WAIT UNTIL DARK

by Frederick Knott

A Broadway hit and 1968 movie blockbuster starring Audrey Hepburn, this masterfully constructed thriller, pitting a murderous psychopath against a newly blinded young woman, moves from one moment of suspense to another as it builds toward an electrifying, breath-stopping final scene.

June 5, 6, 7, 12, 13, 14

Arsenic and Old Lace

by Joseph Kesselring

Meet the Brewster sisters, charming and innocent ladies who populate their cellar with the dead bodies of homeless men that they have helped on their way to "their final peace." This classic comedy is full of unforgettable characters and mayhem of the most delightful kind.

November 6, 7, 8, 13, 14, 15

THE UNEXPECTED GUEST

by Agatha Christie

On a foggy night in Wales, a stranger walks into a house to find a man murdered and his wife standing over him with a gun. The woman is dazed and her confession unconvincing so the unexpected guest decides to help her blame the murder on an intruder. As the murder is investigated, a Pandora's box of love and hate, suspicion and intrigue is opened in this Christie jewel.
